6D Global Technologies, Inc. Advances in Adobe Digital Marketing Solution Partner Program

NEW YORK, Jan. 29, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Six Dimensions, Inc., a 6D Global Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq:SIXD) company serving enterprise-class organizations worldwide with premier digital marketing solutions, announced today its promotion to Business Partner within the Adobe Digital Marketing Solution Partner Program, a partner program for companies that provide digital marketing solutions or technology.

With its strong advisory, consulting and delivery capabilities in the digital marketing space, Six Dimensions will expand its partnership with Adobe in creating integrated marketing, commerce, analytics and customer experience solutions. These solutions will help large organizations to better understand and win new customers, increase share and differentiate through targeted, relevant and consistent experiences across multiple devices and channels.

The Adobe Digital Marketing Solution Partner Program is designed to create a successful relationship between Adobe and technology integration companies to help build customer solutions and facilitate exchange of resources and support. In strengthening its relationship with Adobe, Six Dimensions will receive greater levels of support from Adobe and in turn be able to pass that along to its customers.

"An Adobe partner for many years, Six Dimensions is very excited to expand our relationship and market reach with Adobe, and provide customers the very best solution for creating, delivering and optimizing experiences across Web, social, and mobile channels," said Tejune Kang, CEO for 6D Global Technologies, Inc. "Adobe Marketing Cloud, coupled with Six Dimensions' leading services will help more marketers act at the speed of digital."

"As a Business Partner within the Adobe Digital Marketing Solution Partner Program, we can work with Six Dimensions more closely to deliver end-to-end solutions that help solve complex digital marketing challenges for our joint clients," said Tony Sanders, senior director, digital marketing partners, Adobe. "We are seeing an increase in commitment from key partners to Adobe Marketing Cloud, mirroring the industry recognition Adobe is receiving as providing the most advanced, comprehensive and integrated marketing cloud available."

The company's work includes successful implementations, upgrades, and integrations of Adobe Experience Manager, Adobe's market-leading digital experience management solution, for F1000 enterprises and higher-education and government clients. Six Dimensions has over 40 dedicated in-house architects, designers and developers, many of whom are Adobe Certified Experts, providing high-level development on Adobe Marketing Cloud projects.
