Energous Corporation Grants Inducement Restricted Stock Units to New Employees

SAN JOSE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 05/22/15 -- Energous Corporation ("Energous" or "the Company") (NASDAQ: WATT), the developer of WattUp™, a disruptive wire-free charging technology that provides power at a distance for electronic devices that are mobile and under full software control, today announced it has issued inducement restricted stock units to eleven new non-executive employees.

On May 21, 2015, eleven new non-executive employees were issued restricted stock unit awards covering a total of 205,081 shares of common stock. The restricted stock unit awards vest in four equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of hire of each of the new employees. The awards were approved by the independent compensation committee of the Company's board of directors and were granted as an inducement material to the new employees entering into employment with the Company in accordance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5635(c)(4). The Company is making this announcement as required by Nasdaq rules.

About Energous Corporation

Energous Corporation is developing WattUp™, a wire-free charging technology that will transform the way people charge and power their electronic devices at home, in the office, in the car and beyond. WattUp is a revolutionary, patent- and trademark-pending solution that delivers intelligent, scalable power via the same radio bands as a Wi-Fi router. WattUp differs from current wireless charging systems in that it delivers meaningful, useable power, at a distance, allowing users to roam while charging, resulting in a wire-free experience that saves users from having to remember to plug in their devices or place them on a mat.
