

Frankly Inc. Announces Filing of Form 10 to Officially Become SEC Reporting Company in the U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Frankly Inc. (TSX VENTURE: TLK), a leader in transforming local TV broadcasters and media companies by enabling them to publish and monetize their digital content across multiple platforms, has temporarily suspended its United States public offering due to the commencement of a legal action by Gannaway Entertainment, Inc. ("GEI"), Albert C. Gannaway III, and Samantha Gannaway in United States District Court for the Northern District of California against Frankly, its CEO, CFO/COO and others, alleging violations of United States securities laws, fraud and breach of fiduciary duties. On August 7, 2017, Frankly filed a Form 10 with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission to register its common shares in the United States under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Upon effectiveness of the Form 10, the Company will become a U.S. reporting company, subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act.

"It is unfortunate that Mr. Gannaway has apparently timed his baseless filing to maximize damage to the Company and its shareholders," said Frankly's CEO, Steve Chung. "Nevertheless, we will deal swiftly and forcefully to have these claims dismissed and ensure Mr. Gannaway and his related parties are held fully accountable for their actions. In the meantime, we will not let this nuisance distract us from continuing to execute on our growth plan and maximizing value for both our customers and shareholders."
