Revolution Lighting Technologies Names Brian L. Daley as Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing

Industry Veteran to Drive Sales, Marketing and Strategic Initiatives for Leading LED Lighting Solutions Company

STAMFORD, CT -- (Marketwired) -- 06/08/16 -- Revolution Lighting Technologies (NASDAQ: RVLT), a leader in advanced LED lighting technology solutions, today announced that it has appointed Brian L. Daley as Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing, effective immediately. Brian will oversee all of Revolution Lighting's sales and marketing activities, including expansion of our distribution channels and overall strategic direction throughout the company and its divisions. Brian will also provide important insights as we continue to effectively develop and increase our portfolio of products and solutions addressing the significant short and long term growth opportunities in the industry.

Brian joins Revolution Lighting after holding the title of Vice President, Commercial Lighting at Crestron Electronics, and has extensive industry experience in controls and lighting having held other various sales leadership positions at LSI Industries, Cooper (Eaton) Lighting, and Lutron Electronics. Throughout his career, Brian has been instrumental in developing effective strategic sales and marketing operations working with direct sales forces as well as independent representative agencies, distributors and other channels. He has developed sales networks utilizing a combination of relationship building, sales programs, initiatives, and incentives to increase volume and deliver results.

"We are excited to welcome Brian to Revolution Lighting, expanding the depth and capabilities of our senior management team, focusing on key sales and marketing initiatives during this critical time for our company," said Robert V. LaPenta, CEO and Chairman of Revolution Lighting. "Brian's vast lighting and operational expertise in building strong sales and marketing organizations within the lighting and electronics industries will be invaluable to us as we expand and pursue a wide range of opportunities in a very dynamic environment."

"I have followed the growth of RVLT and have been extremely impressed with the quality of their products and its leadership. I am very excited and honored to be joining Mr. LaPenta and becoming a member of his team. With the convergence of technologies currently taking place in the industry, Revolution Lighting is well positioned to lead with their innovative products and solutions. End-users, specifiers, contractors, distributors, and agents are all looking for companies to partner with that can offer cutting edge LED products, deliver quality solutions and provide consistently reliable customer service. Revolution Lighting is primed to meet these needs," said Daley. "I am looking forward to expanding our presence in the market and increasing our sales footprint by bringing together a group of talented resources and leveraging key relationships to achieve our goals and objectives."
