QS Energy, Inc. CEO and Chairman Greggory Bigger Appointed to U.S. Rep. Ryan Zinke's Veterans Advisory Committee

SANTA BARBARA, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 10/06/15 -- QS Energy, Inc. (the "Company") (OTCQX: QSEP), a developer of integrated technology solutions for the energy industry, today announced that Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, Greggory M. Bigger, has been appointed to Montana Congressman Ryan Zinke's Veterans Advisory Committee. The Committee is a diverse group of veterans, professionals and advocates from across Montana formed to provide on-the-ground intelligence, insight and recommendations to Representative Zinke.

"I am deeply honored by my appointment to the Montana Veterans Affairs Committee, and would like to thank my friend and fellow veteran, Congressman Ryan Zinke, for the opportunity to serve on behalf of those who have sacrificed so much to protect this great nation," Mr. Bigger commented. "As a proud former member of the United States Marine Corps, I understand that sacrifice, and will utilize every resource at my disposal to serve as a voice for our veterans."

As a member of the Committee, Mr. Bigger will have the opportunity to review and comment on current legislation, provide recommendations, as well as share his insight and experience as a veteran to benefit Montana's retired servicemen. During his 10-year career in the United States Marine Corps as a specialist in a Special Operations Capable Marine Expeditionary Unit, Mr. Bigger held various leadership roles including his time as a Non-Commissioned Officer, when he led a boat team of eight Critical Skills Operators. He was a member of the legendary Bravo Company 1/1 1st Battalion 1st Marines (1/1), precursor to what is now the Marine Raider Regiment, and during his tenure, the unit Mr. Bigger served with was recognized as one of the top Special Operations Capable units in the Marine Corps in 1988. Mr. Bigger specialized in amphibious warfare and cliff assault operations, in addition to a wide variety of other tactics and skills. Following his four years of active duty, Mr. Bigger was on Inactive Reserve Status for six years and has since been highly active in veterans affairs in the State of California.

"It is absolutely critical to our country's integrity that the brave men and women of the Armed Forces are taken care of after their military careers end," Mr. Bigger stated. "I will work tirelessly alongside my fellow Committee members to ensure that Montana's veterans have access to promising careers, healthcare and other benefits, and ultimately the opportunity to live fulfilling lives as civilians. I would like to thank all U.S. military personnel, both active and retired, and am incredibly proud to count myself among their ranks and to work on their behalf."
