Cleartronic, Inc. (CLRI) Begins Nationwide Retail Store Project

BOCA RATON, FL -- (Marketwired) -- 06/03/15 -- Cleartronic, Inc. (OTC PINK: CLRI) announces that its subsidiary, ReadyOp Communications, Inc., has begun work on a project with a major retail corporation based in Arkansas. The project, in partnership with two private companies, is expected to continue for the next three years. Specific terms and financial information for the project could not be released. The ReadyOp™ platform will be used for planning, monitoring and reporting the work being done for each individual store location.

"We are pleased to be an integral part of this project as it shows the versatility and flexibility of the ReadyOp™ platform. While our main focus has been with first responders and government agencies, this project illustrates how ReadyOp™ can be used in many different industries. This will be our first entry into the retail sector and our plans are to use this project as a model for other opportunities in the retail sector," said Marc Moore, president of ReadyOp Communications, Inc.

"The planning for this project has been ongoing for many months. We are excited to have the project underway and look forward to the adoption of ReadyOp™ for use in other industries," said Larry Reid, CEO of Cleartronic.

Utilizing the ReadyOp™ platform at multiple locations of this major retailer is just one of many applications in a variety of industries beyond first responders and governmental agencies uses.
