Broward Health Renews Contract for ReadyOp(TM)

BOCA RATON, FL -- (Marketwired) -- 12/10/15 -- Cleartronic, Inc.(OTC PINK: CLRI) through its subsidiary ReadyOp Communications Inc., announced today that Broward Health, one of the ten largest healthcare systems in the nation, has once again renewed its contract with ReadyOp for another three years.

"We have enjoyed using ReadyOp and it has become an increasingly important in our operations. We initially began using ReadyOp as a part of our Hospital Incident Command System (HICS), but its use has now expanded into other administrative and operational areas of our hospitals. ReadyOp has become an important part of the communications between our hospitals, especially for emergency response actions," said Kelly Keys-Torres, RN, Manager of Emergency Preparedness for Broward Health.

"We are honored to have this three year renewal," said Marc Moore, CEO of ReadyOp Communications. "Broward Health was one of the first clients to use ReadyOp and actually helped us with ideas in its development. This has been a great partnership and we look forward to our continued work with their hospitals," Moore further stated.

Planning and communications are vital to success for all organizations. ReadyOp provides an easy and efficient, yet powerful capability for organizations, government agencies, universities and other groups to conduct daily operations, to plan for special events and to respond for incidents that may occur.
