Over the past several months, CLRI has been researching all areas of the medical cannabis market, both nationally and internationally, www.cleartronic.com.

Larry Reid, President of Cleartronic, stated, "Over the past several months, we have been researching all areas of the medical cannabis market, both nationally and internationally. This is in line with creating a diversified company through both development and acquisition. We have discovered that there are many areas of the medical cannabis market that we can participate in and bring value to our shareholders."

Reid continued, "Our efforts over many months traveling abroad, researching and selecting grow farm facilities and distribution channels for finished products have led our Board of Directors to approve our entering this growing industry that is still in its infancy."

"We are moving rapidly, as we continue our research into obtaining government approvals, and currently negotiating agreements with strategic partners," said Reid. "When definitive agreements are reached, our shareholders and the public will be notified. These advances will enhance shareholder value while expanding and diversifying our company goals."

As more information about CLRI's entrance into the "Medical Cannabis Industry" becomes available, timely updates will be provided.
