Cleartronic Inc.'s Subsidiary, ReadyOp Communications, Inc. Announces New Two-way Radio Integration

BOCA RATON, Fla., Sept. 25, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cleartronic, Inc. (OTCMARKETS: CLRI) through ReadyOp Communications, Inc., its wholly-owned subsidiary, announces a new partnership with ROLLTS, Inc., the provider of a new two-way radio designed for hospitals, retail stores and for schools and universities.

The new product partnership with ROLLTS, Inc.'s Domino radio increases functionality for users, giving them greater communications options. These combined features using the Domino design and the ReadyOP DT technology app gives Cleartronic a new product line, www.cleartronci.com, www.readyop.com, and <https://www.rollts.com/>

The ROLLTS' Domino radio is a small, two-way radio, using the 900 mHz frequencies. Because of its small size and seven-day battery life, it is ideal for daily use for teachers, caregivers and others who do not want to carry a handheld radio, yet need to maintain communications. When used in conjunction with ReadyOp's DT app, the Domino radio has the capability of two-way communications with handheld radios, laptops, and smartphones.

ReadyOp's radio interoperability provides clients with true two-way communications within and between radio talk groups regardless of location, radio type, and frequency. Regardless of their location and through an encrypted internet connection, authorized users can extend radio communications to radios, laptops and smartphones worldwide.

"The new product partnership with ROLLTS, Inc.'s Domino radio increases functionality for users, giving them greater communications options. These combined features using the Domino design and the ReadyOP DT technology app gives Cleartronic a new product line, which opens new sales and marketing opportunities to increase Cleartronic's bottom-line." stated Larry Reid, Cleartronic's CFO.

ReadyOp has been providing two-way radio interoperability for more than six-years for fire and law enforcement agencies as well as federal and state agencies.
