Company to Establish New Manufacturing Facility in Indonesia

WENLING, China and ALLENTOWN, Pa, Nov. 25, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Fuling Global Inc. (NASDAQ: FORK), a manufacturer and distributor of environmentally friendly plastic and paper foodservice disposable products, today announced it has signed a 10-year lease on a property in Semarang City, Central Java, Indonesia, on which it plans to operate a 194,000 square-foot manufacturing and distribution facility.

Fuling Global said manufacturing equipment will be installed in two phases. The first phase is a 97,000 square-foot plant, which will produce straws, paper cups and plastic cup lids. Fuling expects to start trial production in the first phase during the first quarter of 2020. The second phase, which is another 97,000 square-foot plant, will be set up for production of disposable tableware, packaging containers and plates. The company anticipates trial production in the second phase during the second quarter of 2020.

"Our expansion into Indonesia will be Fuling Global's sixth manufacturing facility and third outside of Mainland China," said Xinfu Hu, CEO of Fuling Global Inc. "The new facility will provide further efficiencies and economic benefits, including reduced U.S. tariff expenditures. The Indonesian facility is part of our corporate initiative to expand marketing and sales throughout Southeast Asia, as well as serving U.S. markets.

"When fully operational, the Indonesian facility will have approximately 500 employees," added Fuling Global's Chairwoman Guilan Jiang. "As we continue our global expansion, we also are pleased that our recently completed manufacturing facility in Monterrey, Mexico successfully started its trial operation earlier this year. We shipped our first run of plastic straws from Mexico to our U.S. customers in October. In addition, we plan to produce other products at our Monterrey facility, including paper straws and paper cups, to serve our customers' evolving needs."
