Management believes this presentation is more meaningful to investors as there was no significant change in same-store or Combined store revenue streams and other financial metrics or the same-store or Combined store non-financial statistical information as a result of the company's change in status from an investment company to an operating company.

Management Commentary

“Our strong results for the third quarter are indicative of the overall success we've achieved in 2017 so far, with same-store revenues and NOI reaching new company records,” said president and chief executive officer of Global Self Storage, Mark C. Winmill. “We believe that these results have continued to demonstrate the benefits of focusing on secondary and tertiary markets in the Mid-West, Northeast, and Mid-Atlantic that have exhibited both higher barriers to entry and more subdued new development activity.”

“Complementing our healthy financial results this quarter was the successful shareholder approval last month of the amendment and restatement of our charter. This new charter not only helps us preserve our REIT qualification, but also strengthens our ability to support our future growth. While we will continue to grow the business organically, through initiatives such as increasing our rental rates and expanding our current properties, we will also look prudently for attractive acquisition opportunities that can expand our self-storage portfolio and leasable square feet.”

“Overall, the first nine months of 2017 have set us up nicely to close out the year on a strong note. As we look ahead to 2018, we see an opportunity to strengthen our portfolio by taking further advantage of a highly fragmented self storage property market. In particular, we will continue to focus on acquiring and improving properties in our core markets, which should help drive higher FFO and get us closer to achieving full dividend coverage.”

Same-Store Results for the Third Quarter of 2017****

The company's same-store portfolio for the third quarter of 2017 included seven of its eleven stores, representing 70.7% of store NOI for the quarter.

For the third quarter of 2017, same-store revenues increased 11.8% to 1.4 million compared with $1.2 million for the third quarter in 2016. The increase was driven primarily by a 9% increase in net leased square footage.

Same-store operating expenses in the third quarter of 2017 totaled $568,000 compared with $479,000 in the third quarter of 2016. The increase was primarily driven by higher store level employment costs, property taxes, and administrative expenses, which were partially offset by reduced advertising and marketing costs as well as repair and maintenance expenses.

For the third quarter of 2017, same-store NOI increased 7.5% to $820,000 compared with $762,000 for the third quarter of 2016. The increase was due primarily to an increase in rental and occupancy rates and net leased square footage.

Same-store occupancy at September 30, 2017 increased 0.6% to 92.0% from 91.4% at September 30, 2016. This includes the impact from the Bolingbrook expansion project completed in November 2016.

For the third quarter of 2017, Combined store revenues increased 43.3% to $1.9 million compared with $1.3 million for the third quarter of 2016. The increase was driven by, among other things, a 15.7% increase in net leased square footage at the period end when compared to one year ago, as well as the results of the company's revenue rate management program.

Combined store operating expenses in the third quarter of 2017 totaled $773,000 compared with $523,000 in the third quarter of 2016. The increase was driven primarily by higher store level employment costs, property taxes, and administrative expenses due to the company's 2016 store acquisitions, which were partially offset by reduced advertising and marketing costs as well as repair and maintenance costs.

For the third quarter of 2017, Combined store NOI increased 40.5% to $1.2 million compared with $826,000 for the third quarter of 2016. The increase was a result of, among other things, the increase in Combined store revenues which were partially offset by an increase in Combined store operating expenses.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This press release contains certain non-GAAP financial measures. FFO and FFO per share are non-GAAP measures defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts ("NAREIT") and are considered helpful measures of REIT performance by REITs and many REIT analysts. NAREIT defines FFO as a REIT's net income, excluding gains or losses from sales of property, and adding back real estate depreciation and amortization. FFO and FFO per share are not a substitute for net income or earnings per share. FFO is not a substitute for GAAP net cash flow in evaluating our liquidity or ability to pay dividends, because it excludes financing activities presented on our statements of cash flows. In addition, other REITs may compute these measures differently, so comparisons among REITs may not be helpful. However, the company believes that to further understand the performance of its stores, FFO should be considered along with the net income and cash flows reported in accordance with GAAP and as presented in the company's financial statements.

AFFO represents FFO excluding the effects of business development and acquisition related costs and non-recurring items, which we believe are not indicative of the company's operating results. We present AFFO because we believe it is a helpful measure in understanding our results of operations insofar as we believe that the items noted above that are included in FFO, but excluded from AFFO, are not indicative of our ongoing operating results. We also believe that the investment community considers our AFFO (or similar measures using different terminology) when evaluating us. Because other REITs or real estate companies may not compute AFFO in the same manner as we do, and may use different terminology, our computation of AFFO may not be comparable to AFFO reported by other REITs or real estate companies.

We believe net operating income or "NOI" is a meaningful measure of operating performance because we utilize NOI in making decisions with respect to, among other things, capital allocations, determining current store values, evaluating store performance, and in comparing period-to-period and market-to-market store operating results. In addition, we believe the investment community utilizes NOI in determining operating performance and real estate values, and does not consider depreciation expense because it is based upon historical cost. NOI is defined as net store earnings before general and administrative expenses, interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization.

NOI is not a substitute for net income, net operating cash flow, or other related GAAP financial measures, in evaluating our operating results.

Same-Store Self Storage Operations Definition

We consider our same-store portfolio to consist of only those stores owned and operated on a stabilized basis at the beginning and at the end of the applicable periods presented. We consider a store to be stabilized once it has achieved an occupancy rate that we believe, based on our assessment of market-specific data, is representative of similar self-storage assets in the applicable market for a full year measured as of the most recent January 1 and has not been significantly damaged by natural disaster or undergone significant renovation. Same-store occupancy includes the impact from expansion projects at those stores. We believe that same-store results are useful to investors in evaluating our performance because they provide information relating to changes in store-level operating performance without taking into account the effects of acquisitions, dispositions or new ground-up developments. At September 30, 2017, we owned 7 same-store facilities and 4 non same-store facilities. The company believes that by providing same-store results from a stabilized pool of stores, with accompanying operating metrics including, but not limited to variances in occupancy, rental revenue, operating expenses, NOI, etc., stockholders and potential investors are able to evaluate operating performance without the effects of non-stabilized occupancy levels, rent levels, expense levels, acquisitions or completed developments. Same-store results should not be used as a basis for future same-store performance or for the performance of the company's stores as a whole.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Forward looking statements include statements concerning the company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenues or performance, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or intentions, and other information that is not historical information.
