Peter Guber Retires From Digital Turbine Board of Directors

Agrees to Six Month Lock-up of Holdings

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 14, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Digital Turbine, Inc. (Nasdaq: APPS), the Company empowering operators and Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEMs") around the globe with end-to-end mobile solutions, today announced that Peter Guber has retired from its board of directors in conjunction with his resignation from his other public company board. Mr. Guber had been a director since August 2007, and served as chairman of the board until January 2015. His resignation was effective August 10, 2015. As part of his resignation, Mr. Guber has agreed to a six-month lock-up of his holdings of Digital Turbine common stock.

"Peter has played an invaluable role on our board over the last eight years with his world-class media and entertainment experience helping to guide us through a critical period of formation and transformation for Digital Turbine," said Bill Stone, CEO. "We are grateful for his guidance and steadfast presence, and we wish him well in his future endeavors."

Mr. Guber stated, "Because of my increasing involvement in my various business interests, I regret that I must resign as a director of Digital Turbine. I am very proud of the progress made by Digital Turbine during the last several years. I am enthusiastic and supportive of the company's strategy and look forward to its continued growth."

The board will seek a new independent director with industry expertise to replace Mr. Guber.
