

Marathon Patent Group Announces That the USPTO Has Denied Texas Instruments Inc. Petition for Inter Partes Review of Vantage Point Patent

LOS ANGELES, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 01/06/15 -- Marathon Patent Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: MARA) ("Marathon"), a patent licensing company, announced today that on January 5, 2015, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) denied a petition for inter partes review (IPR) filed by Texas Instruments Inc. against Marathon subsidiary Vantage Point Technology's U.S. Patent No. 5,463,750 ('750 patent).

The PTAB ruled: "We determine that the record before us does not demonstrate that there is a reasonable likelihood, under 35 U.S.C. § 314(a) that Petitioner would prevail with respect to at least one challenged claim. We consequently deny the Petition and decline to institute inter partes review of the '750 patent."

"We are pleased with the USPTO's decision denying Texas Instruments Inc.'s IPR petition," said Doug Croxall, Founder and CEO of Marathon Patent Group. "We will continue to seek reasonable royalty payments from those who infringe the '750 patent. Hopefully the IPR denial will encourage the parties in suit to reach reasonable licensing arrangements with Vantage Point."

About Marathon Patent Group:
