Arotech Showcases Battery Solutions For Advanced Robotics And Unmanned Vehicles

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Aug. 14, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Arotech Corporation (NasdaqGM: ARTX), a provider of quality defense and security products for the military, law enforcement and homeland security markets, announced today that it will be showcasing its battery solutions for robotics and unmanned vehicles at the AUVSI Unmanned Systems' show which is being held in Washington DC.

"We have already seen success with some sales of our advanced battery technologies for unmanned and robotic systems, and we are pleased to be showcasing these solutions for the first time in the United States at AUVSI," commented Robert S. Ehrlich, Arotech's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "We see this market as a strong future contributor to Arotech, especially given the trend of military spending shifting towards unmanned systems. These products are the fruits of our research and development efforts and we intend to continue developing advanced products to capitalize on future market trends."
