Highlights to Financial Performance

EVI's record results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year 2019 reflect the Company's consistent execution of its buy-and-build growth strategy. The record performance, however, only includes twelve months of results of six of the Company's thirteen businesses. The Company continues to seek attractive investments across its businesses in the pursuit of future growth and does not believe that it has begun to reap the full benefits of its growing size.

Acquisitions

During the fiscal year 2019, EVI completed a record six acquisitions and continues to execute its long-term growth strategy.

Revenue

For the fiscal year and three-months ended June 30, 2019, revenues increased $78.3 million, or 52%, to a record $228 million and increased $20.9 million, or 47%, to a record $65 million, compared to the fiscal year and three months ended June 30, 2018, respectively. The increase in revenue was primarily due to the results of operations of acquired businesses that were not consolidated into the Company's financial statements for all or part of the prior periods.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

For the fiscal year and three-months ended June 30, 2019, gross profit increased $16.2 million, or 44%, to a record $53 million and increased $4.8 million, or 43%, to a record $16 million, compared to the fiscal year and three months ended June 30, 2018, respectively. For the fiscal year and three-months ended June 30, 2019, gross margin decreased from 24.3% to 23.1% and from 25.3% to 24.5%, compared to the fiscal year and three months ended June 30, 2018, respectively. The decrease in gross margin was primarily due to EVI's increased engagement in longer-term federal government contracts. Excluding these longer-term federal government contracts, gross margins for the fiscal year and three months ended June 30, 2019 would have been 25.2% and 24.8%, respectively.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses increased $16.1 million, or 55%, and $4.3 million, or 46%, for the fiscal year and three-months ended June 30, 2019, compared to the fiscal year and three months ended June 30, 2018, respectively. The increase in operating expenses was largely attributable to expenses incurred by the Company in connection with its growth strategy, including: (1) additional operating expenses associated with acquired businesses not reflected in prior fiscal year or period operating expenses, (2) additional operating expenses at the acquired businesses in pursuit of future growth and in support of the Company's growing operations, (3) increases in operating expenses in connection with the Company's growth, including greater accounting fees, legal fees, and insurance costs, (4) the addition of sales, service, and operations support professionals and related costs, as total personnel at June 30, 2019 increased by 71% compared to total personnel at June 30, 2018, with 76% of such increase attributable to sales and service related personnel, (5) increased investments in sales, service, and operations related technologies in support of the Company's buy-and-build growth strategy, and (6) an increase in non-cash amortization expense related to the intangible assets the Company acquired in connection with its acquisitions and an increase in non-cash share-based compensation. EVI believes these investments, initiatives and expenses will have a positive impact on the Company's ability to achieve its long-term growth goals.

Henry M. Nahmad, Chairman and CEO commented: "We are pleased with the execution of our growth strategy. The records we continue to set have created a reputation for our Company that we believe will continue to encourage successful business owners, loyal suppliers, and valued customers to invest in and do business with EVI. We intend to continue to execute our growth strategy and build upon our growth record by pursuing available opportunities for growth in our and related industries.”

EVI to Attend Baird’s 2019 Industrials Conference on November 5-7, 2019

The Company will attend and host one-on-one meetings with investors during the conference dates.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

In this press release, EVI discloses the non-GAAP financial measure of Adjusted EBITDA, which EVI defines as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and amortization of share-based compensation. Adjusted EBITDA is determined by adding interest expense, income taxes, depreciation, amortization, and amortization of share-based compensation to net income as shown in the attached Condensed Consolidated Earnings before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation, Amortization, and Amortization of Share-based Compensation. EVI considers Adjusted EBITDA to be an important indicator of its operating performance. Adjusted EBITDA is also used by companies, lenders, investors and others because it excludes certain items that can vary widely across different industries or among companies within the same industry. For example, interest expense can be dependent on a company’s capital structure, debt levels and credit ratings, and the tax positions of companies can vary because of their differing abilities to take advantage of tax benefits and because of the tax policies of the jurisdictions in which they operate. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to net income or any other measure of financial performance or liquidity, including cash flow, derived in accordance with GAAP, or to any other method of analyzing EVI’s results as reported under GAAP. In addition, EVI’s definition of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to definitions of Adjusted EBITDA or other similarly titled measures used by other companies.
