Recent Company Highlights

- In its Q3 2020 financial results, core cannabis revenues were $13.5 million, a 220% increase from $4.2 million in Q3 2019. Gross profit from the core cannabis business increased 221% to $8.7 million for Q3 compared with $2.7 million for the same period in 2019. EBITDA for Q3 was $4.4 million compared to an EBITDA loss of $733,000 for the same period in 2019.
- MariMed received Massachusetts Cannabis Control Commission (CCC) approval for three adult-use licenses (cultivation, production, and retail), and commenced adult-use sales in September 2020 following the agency's final inspection. The Company's entry into Massachusetts' adult-use market is expected to continue to drive revenue growth in 2021.
- In Illinois, the Company's three Thrive dispensaries in Anna, Harrisburg, and Mt. Vernon are thriving under the Illinois adult-use program. The Company is continuing negotiations for the location of its fourth Illinois dispensary, which it hopes to be operational by mid-2021.

- The Company's Betty's Eddies all-natural cannabis-infused fruit chews continue to dominate the market and earn accolades including the recent "Edible of the Year" distinction from the Explore Maryland Cannabis Awards.
