Venerando J. Indelicato, Chief Financial Officer of EnviroStar Inc., stated, "Due to customer delays in obtaining governmental construction permits, only a small portion of the Company's scheduled backlog was shipped during the first nine months of fiscal 2013. Despite these delays, the Company managed to achieve increased revenues and profits for both periods when compared to last year. However, we are pleased to announce that these construction permits were finally obtained in early April 2013 and therefore, shipments have begun and are scheduled to be substantially completed before the end of our fiscal year."

EnviroStar, Inc. through its subsidiaries is one of the nation's leading distributors of industrial laundry, dry cleaning equipment and steam boilers.
