CarCharging Services and Expands Its National Network of Electric Vehicle Charging Stations

Leading Electric Vehicle Charging Services Company Adds New EV Charging Locations and Improves Service Across the United States

MIAMI BEACH, FL -- (Marketwired) -- 08/09/16 -- Car Charging Group, Inc. (OTCQB: CCGI) ("CarCharging" or "Company") a leading owner, operator, and provider of electric vehicle (EV) charging services, announced today that over the last two months, the Company has improved its national network of available EV charging stations by deploying Blink EV chargers at new locations and restoring service at hundreds of existing EV charging stations on Blink Network in different markets across the United States. In addition, CarCharging has added more than 3,600 new Blink memberships in the last two months and now has over 83,000 members.

During June and July, CarCharging's Operations team successfully serviced more than 400 EV charging stations across the nation, including DC Fast chargers and Level 2 EV chargers. The Company also installed and commissioned nearly 100 new stations across California, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Massachusetts, Maryland, Nevada, Tennessee, and Washington.

New or existing locations with Blink EV charging stations that were serviced or deployed are now available to property partners and EV drivers include, but are not limited to:

- California
 - IKEA (Retail) - Carson, Costa Mesa, East Palo Alto, and San Diego
 - Santana Row (Destination) - San Jose
 - Ralphs (Retail) - Marina Del Rey and Santa Monica
- Georgia
 - IKEA (Retail) - Atlanta
 - Kroger (Retail) - Alpharetta, Atlanta, and Grayson
- Illinois

"Despite low gas prices, July 2016 was the strongest month to date for plug-in electric vehicle (PEV) sales with over 14,000 total PEVs sold," said Mike Calise, CEO of CarCharging. "This spike in demand is aligned with our efforts to expand EV charging infrastructure. We strive to continually improve the availability of Blink EV charging stations nationwide, and since EV drivers rely on the Blink Network, we are proud to demonstrate our commitment to improving the overall driver experience and working towards providing a superior level of service to customers."

CarCharging works closely with a national network of certified electricians to service its EV chargers and expand its EV charging services in various regions throughout the country. Blink EV chargers are able to rapidly recharge electric cars, and accept payment with a major credit card via the Blink InCard, Blink mobile application, or Blink Customer Support. Blink's free membership offers drivers discounted charging fees on select public EV chargers on the Blink Network. Drivers can become a Blink member and pinpoint Blink EV charging locations through the Blink mobile application or www.BlinkNetwork.com. Drivers can also initiate charging sessions directly from the Blink mobile application.
