Pingtan Marine Enterprise Announces Participation in Two International Industry Events

FUZHOU, China, Nov. 21, 2013 /PRNewswire/ --Pingtan Marine Enterprise Ltd. (Nasdaq: PME), ("Pingtan," or the "Company") an integrated marine services company in the People's Republic of China (PRC), today announced that a delegation from the Company presented at two recent events discussing the fishing industry in China, the 18th Annual China Fisheries & Seafood Expo in Dalian, China, and the Second "China - Pacific Island Countries Economic Development and Cooperation Forum - Agriculture Fisheries Symposium" in Guangzhou, China.

The Deputy Minister of Agriculture of the PRC, Mr. Niu Dun, participated in both events, which served as an opportunity for fishing and marine companies from domestic and international companies to discuss the development and modernization of the industry.

Mr. Xinrong Zhou, Pingtan's Chairman and CEO, stated, "We were very pleased to participate in these two events, which serve as a strong opportunity for Pingtan to share ideas and remain abreast on central government policies surrounding our industry. We completely agree with the Minister's comments that modernization of the fishing industry is crucial to continue stable and strong growth while still satisfying growing consumer demand. We continue to focus on building our brand recognition both in China and abroad, while sharing ideas surrounding the introduction of advanced fisheries production and processing technology. Our goal is for Pingtan to be a market leader in these areas, and feel our business will gain greater recognition within a largely fragmented industry as we grow scale throughout the Company."

18th Annual China Fisheries & Seafood Expo – Dalian, China

The China Fisheries & Seafood Expo is Asia's first and the world's second-largest professional fishing show, the whole industry chain is the world's aquatic showcase, exchange and cooperation platform.
