Next Graphite Launches Website for African Mine

www.nextgraphite.com Highlights 125,000 Acre Property and Historically Productive Graphite Mine in Namibia

NEW YORK, NY and WINDHOEK, NAMIBIA -- (Marketwired) -- 03/26/14 -- Next Graphite, Inc. (OTCQB: GPNE) (the "Company") which owns a mining license over 125,000 acres of previously producing graphite properties in the Republic of Namibia, southwest Africa, has launched its corporate website at www.nextgraphite.com.

The website was produced by market leader Equisolve LLC of Ft. Lauderdale, FL which was engaged by GPNE to provide all aspects of a full-service, investor-facing website, including hosting infrastructure and a content management system.

About Next Graphite, Inc.:

Next Graphite, Inc. is a development stage company targeting the growing global graphite production industry with the Company's 125,000-acre Africa-based Aukam Graphite Mine. The Aukam Graphite Mine was established in 1940 in the current Republic of Namibia, produced USD$30 million of graphite at today's prices, and is estimated to hold over 4 million tons of natural, high-grade, large-flake, hydrothermal-sourced graphite reserves. Global graphite demand is being driven by the development of new markets for clean and efficient energy alternatives, smart grid infrastructure and military capabilities. Next Graphite has an immediately-available, surface-visible, estimated 140,000-ton stockpile, along with competitive projected mining and processing costs. The completion of GPNE's Aukam Graphite Mine re-launch and development activities is expected to result in a multi-million dollar inward investment into Namibia in 2014-2015.
