LiveDeal to Advertise at National Hockey League All-Star Game

LAS VEGAS, Jan. 22, 2015 /PRNewswire/ - LiveDeal, Inc. (NASDAQ:LIVE) ("LiveDeal" or the "Company"), operates livedeal.com, which enables restaurants to publish "real-time, instant offers" to consumers, today announced that in continuing its advertising campaign at top sporting events in the U.S., it will advertise at this year's National Hockey League (NHL) All-Star Game to be played January 25, 2015, in Columbus, Ohio.

As with the Company's Super Bowl advertisement, the company has committed to a full-page ad in the 2015 NHL All-Star Game program. The program for this year's All-Star Game, featuring teams captained by Nick Foligno and Jonathan Toews, will be available at Nationwide Arena in Columbus on game day, as well as throughout the NHL markets in national newsstands, specialty retail stores, local airports, and on the official websites of the NHL and the NHL All-Star Game.

"LiveDeal's recent efforts to expand its advertising campaign into sports venues continues at another major U.S. sporting event. The NHL All-Star Game is a prestigious event and we anticipate that the loyal hockey audience will welcome the opportunity to learn about new ways of accessing money-saving deals on dining locally," said Jon Isaac, CEO of LiveDeal Inc. "The availability of the program, beginning with the game and continuing with national distribution of the program via newsstands and web distribution, has incredible potential to expand our core audience and drive new visitors to LiveDeal.com and our iOS and Android mobile apps."
