DENVER--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The ONE Group Hospitality, Inc. (Nasdaq: STKS) is continuing its culinary expansion in the greater Los Angeles-area with the relocation of its longstanding Westwood restaurant to an expansive new venue. On the heels of opening the doors of a new STK Steakhouse in Topanga, the newly relocated STK Los Angeles restaurant – located at 1100 Glenwood Ave. – continues to serve up the brand’s signature and unmatched “Vibe Dining” for lunch, dinner, happy hour and weekend brunch.

“STK Los Angeles has long been a staple of the vibrant and chic culinary seen in the City of Angels, attracting celebrities, influencers and visitors for nearly two decades,” said Emanuel “Manny” Hilario, President and CEO of The ONE Group. “While we have loved calling the W Hotel home for the past 10-years, the new venue for STK Los Angeles enables us to accommodate even more guests eager to enjoy our rich Vibe Dining experience and exhibits our commitment to expanding in the area.”

The dining room features a mix of tables with white leather chairs and the iconic white circular dining booths – perfect for larger parties. Finally, two private dining rooms provide the perfect setting for more intimate events and special events, while floor to ceiling windows allows the bright California sunlight to flood the main the dining area with natural light.

Guests can indulge in the same craveable favorites they have come to know and love when dining at STK, including the legendary Lil’ BRG Sliders, Wagyu Meatballs, Short Rib Quesadillas and expansive selection of premium steaks – including cuts of Wagyu from around the globe.
