

Viking's Hedging Strategy Proves Sound as Commodity Prices Drop Due to Virus Concerns and International Price War

HOUSTON, March 09, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- via NEWMEDIAWIRE -- Viking Energy Group, Inc. (OTCQB: VKIN) ("Viking") is pleased to announce that its majority owned subsidiary, Elysium Energy, LLC ("Elysium"), entered into a multi-year hedging arrangement in connection with Elysium's recent acquisition of oil & gas properties in Texas and Louisiana. Details of the acquisition were referenced in Viking's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 6, 2020 with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available under "Investors -- SEC Filings" at www.vikingenergygroup.com, and in press releases issued by Viking on February 4, 2020 and February 10, 2020.

On February 4, 2020, Elysium hedged 75% of the estimated oil and gas production associated with the newly acquired assets for 2020, 60% of the estimated production for 2021 and 50% of the estimated production for the period between January, 2022 to July, 2022. Estimated oil and gas production excludes potential production from any enhancement and/or new drilling initiatives. A summary of the quantities and pricing associated with the hedging contracts, all of which were arranged through Cargill Incorporated, is as follows:

Period	Contract Type	Quantity Hedged	Floor	Ceiling

Viking's Other Hedging Contracts

Elysium's hedging contracts supplement Viking's other hedging arrangements.

On or about December 28, 2018, Viking's wholly-owned subsidiary, Ichor Energy, LLC ("Ichor"), entered into hedging arrangements with BP Energy Company with respect to assets acquired by Ichor on or about the same date, pursuant to which Ichor hedged 75% of the estimated declining oil and gas production associated with the applicable assets for the period between December, 2018 and December, 2022. Estimated oil and gas production excluded potential production from any enhancement and/or new drilling initiatives.

On or about December 22, 2017, Viking's wholly-owned subsidiary, Petrodome Energy, LLC ("Petrodome"), entered into hedging arrangements with Cargill Incorporated with respect to assets acquired by Petrodome on or about the same date, pursuant to which Petrodome hedged a certain amount of its estimated oil production for the period between December, 2017 and December, 2020. Petrodome is also party to another contract with Cargill, expiring in June, 2020, with respect to other oil production.

A summary of the quantities and pricing associated with the Ichor and Petrodome hedging contracts is as follows:
