For nearly 50 years, Men's Wearhouse has provided expertise in menswear as the trusted partner for customers seeking brands that consistently deliver on quality, fit and great value. This first collection in the partnership is built around three staple suit colors—blue, black and grey—and high-quality straight fit jeans in four washes. The signature tailored looks, paired with high-quality denim, aims to provide wardrobe staples for every menswear customer's wardrobe. Along with this introduction, Men's Wearhouse continues to strengthen its commitment to a convenient shopping experience by pairing multiple omnichannel initiatives such as hands-free fitting technology, BOPIS (Buy Online, Pick Up In Store), curbside pickup, appointment booking and contactless payment with its legendary in-store service and expertise.

"I'm excited to make Collection by Michael Strahan, and soon, MSX, even more accessible through this partnership with Men's Wearhouse. Our goal has always been to deliver quality and style in inclusive sizing at an affordable price, and this partnership only strengthens that goal," said

Strahan. “For the first launch, we will have our signature tailored looks paired with our amazing denim. It is the perfect uniform for the new normal for every age and every occasion.”

Collection by Michael Strahan will initially launch in 57 Men’s Wearhouse locations nationwide and on menswearhouse.com, making the top selling brand more accessible now than ever. Over the course of the year, the partnership will continue to expand with additional categories from elevated performance and athleisure, to the new “workleisure”, catering to menswear needs of customers of all ages whether they’re lounging at home, running errands, going to work or out to dinner and beyond.

“A lot of people are working from home and communicating virtually, there’s definitely a shift in attire. But as a CEO, you still want to have your team looking presentable,” said Schwartz-Morini, Partner. “We knew timing was key here to accommodate to this new demand. Koral Chen, who has led the brand’s growth and strategy, along with our new Men’s Wearhouse family, have really gone above and beyond to get this expansion off the ground so quickly. The timing couldn’t be better for our new denim and tailored looks, but even more so, the workleisure categories we have in development.”

“We are so excited to launch the Collection by Michael Strahan line in our Men’s Wearhouse stores this November,” said Carrie Ask, Chief Customer Officer of Tailored Brands. “Michael and Tailored Brands have the same goal in terms of helping all customers look and feel their best for their memorable moments as well as everyday occasions with a great selection of clothing at accessible prices. Michael also shares our ideals of treating everyone with the same respect, regardless of background and, as such, we believe this pairing makes perfect sense for our customers.”

The suit separates, which will include Big & Tall sizes, will retail for $139.99 for jackets, $60 for pants and $199.99 for the full suit. The denim will range in size from 30x30 to 44x32 and retail for $49.99. Menswear customers of all ages will be offered stylish, high quality, refined fabrics and expertly tailored pieces for work or leisure. Collection by Michael Strahan launches on November 11, 2020 at 57 Men’s Wearhouse stores nationwide and online at CollectionByMichaelStrahan.com.
