Galaxy Gaming's CEO to Conduct Exclusive Webcast Interview With The Green Baron Report; New "Stock Pick" Coverage Initiated

LAS VEGAS, Oct. 13, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Galaxy Gaming, Inc. (OTCBB:GLXZ), the second largest provider of proprietary casino table games, announced today that its CEO Robert Saucier will conduct an exclusive new audio-taped webcast interview so that GLXZ shareholders and the investment community can learn more about the Company's recent developments and growth plans. Unrestricted access to the webcast will be available beginning on Thursday, October 15 at www.TheGreenBaron.com. Investors who wish to receive The Green Baron Report for free can join at <http://www.thegreenbaron.com/Join.htm>.

The Green Baron Report also initiated coverage of Galaxy Gaming as a new "Stock Pick" through its report released to members after the close of trading on Wednesday, October 7, 2009 and is available at TheGreenBaron.com website. The report focused on how Galaxy intends to increase its per table revenue base by adding its Bonus Jackpot Systems to its large, existing number of tables (now about 1,700), and through the introduction of new, proprietary table games.

An excerpt from The Green Baron Report:

"GLXZ is a newly traded stock, but it is one we strongly suggest members accumulate as close to our profile price as possible for the long term," Green Baron told investors. "It is very possible Galaxy could rally to over $2 per share by year end, but we really think members should consider putting this one away. Galaxy is managed by who we believe are the 'best in the business,' and they are focused intently on building shareholder value."
