LiveDeal Inc. to Launch Expanded Investor Relations Campaign

LAS VEGAS, Nov. 18, 2014 /PRNewswire/ - LiveDeal Inc. (NASDAQ:LIVE) ("LiveDeal" or the "Company"), a publicly traded company that operates livedeal.com, a geo-location based mobile marketing platform that enables restaurants to publish "real-time" and "instant offers" to nearby consumers, today announces that it has committed time and resources to increase its communications with investors in order to better tell its story to Wall Street.

The initiative may include informational television commercials, financial news radio placements and an aggressive city-by-city road show schedule, where principals of the company will meet with current and potential investors to answer questions, discuss the future of this currently undervalued tech company, and relate the LiveDeal story of record-setting expansion, revenue increases and targeted acquisitions to expand its revenue verticals.

"We believe that LiveDeal remains undervalued, and that it's time for us to communicate more directly with our investors and potential investors," said Jon Isaac, CEO of LiveDeal, Inc. "LiveDeal is a very exciting story and we are confident that as we continue to execute on our business plan, and communicate with investors, the true value of the company will become apparent."
