GulfSlope Energy and Texas South Energy Agree to Extend Letter of Intent

HOUSTON, TX -- (Marketwired) -- 12/18/17 -- GulfSlope Energy, Inc. (OTCQB: GSPE) and Texas South Energy, Inc. (OTC PINK: TXSO) (collectively, the "Farmors") announced today that pursuant to the exclusive letter of intent ("LOI") previously signed by the Farmors and a large international oil and gas company (the "Partner") to jointly drill and develop the Farmors oil and gas prospects located offshore Gulf of Mexico, that all parties have agreed to extend the term of the LOI to January 8, 2018, or such later time as they mutually agree.

The purpose of the LOI is to facilitate further discussions between the parties on an exclusive basis with respect to the negotiation of the contemplated transaction and is a statement of the present intent of the parties to pursue the contemplated transaction in good faith. The LOI is subject to a number of conditions including completion of additional due diligence, preparation and execution of definitive agreements, and board approvals. The LOI is not binding and there is no certainty that the above mentioned negotiations will mature into any binding agreement between the parties. The final commercial terms in a binding agreement, if ultimately executed, may not be as set forth in the LOI.
