Inventergy Enhances Relationship With Fortress Investment Group; Secures up to $3M in License Payment Advances

CAMPBELL, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 02/27/15 -- Inventergy Global, Inc. (NASDAQ: INVT) ("Inventergy"), a Silicon Valley based Intellectual Property (IP) licensing company, today announced that it has further enhanced its financing relationship with Fortress Investment Group, LLC ("Fortress"). Fortress has agreed to provide up to $3M in advances based on future payments from Inventergy IP licensees and waive or adjust certain prior debt repayment terms for near-term licensing agreements made by Inventergy. For further information about the agreement with Fortress and advances under this agreement committed by Fortress to Inventergy to date, see the Company's current report on Form 8K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2015.

"Fortress is indeed a valuable financing partner to Inventergy, and continues to demonstrate confidence in our business model, superior assets and licensing program," stated Joe Beyers, Chairman and CEO of Inventergy.

"This future payment advance agreement with Fortress, among other things, enables Inventergy to establish flexible payment terms with licensees, further improving total licensing payment opportunities, while providing Inventergy additional operational cash resources to further drive key licensing initiatives. Beyers continued, "We are extremely pleased to have a company like Fortress backing us in our licensing efforts."
