Command Security Corporation Reports First Fiscal Quarter Results

LAGRANGEVILLE, N.Y.--

Command Security Corporation (Amex: MOC) announced today its financial and operating results for the first fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2007.

For the three months ended June 30, 2007, revenues increased $5,777,994, or 25.9%, to $28,083,888, compared with revenues of $22,305,894 in the same period of the prior year. Net income increased $254,540 to $458,865, or $.04 per share, compared with $204,325, or $.02 per share, in the same period of the prior year.

The increase in revenues for the three months ended June 30, 2007 was due mainly to the purchase of a security services business in California and new and existing airline customers at Los Angeles and San Jose International Airports in California and John F. Kennedy International Airport and LaGuardia Airport in New York. Net income for the three months ended June 30, 2007 includes a recovery and gain totaling approximately $417,000 (before taxes) associated with stock received by the Company in connection with its claims related to the bankruptcy filings of United and Northwest Airlines.

Barry I. Regenstein, President of Command Security, said, "We are pleased with our results for the first quarter. Our ability to achieve both top and bottom-line growth demonstrates the success of our growth strategy and continued demand for our services in the primary markets we serve."

He added, "Strategically, we are preparing for the future by building a platform for long-term growth. This includes expanding our sales and marketing resources, bolstering our managerial infrastructure and continuing to focus on controlling costs. We are now entering the acceleration phase of our strategic plan, and will continue to expand both geographically and vertically. We are pleased with our progress to date, and we remain confident that our business model will continue to yield long-term attractive results."
