VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Dec. 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GLOBAL BLOCKCHAIN TECHNOLOGIES CORP. (CSE: BLOC.U) (FSE: BWSP) (OTC: BLKCF) ("BLOC", or the "Company") announces that further to the previously announced proposed transaction between BLOC and X2 Games Corp. ("X2 Games"), as announced in press releases dated October 10, 2018, and December 3, 2018, BLOC has acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of X2 Games (the "X2 Games Shares") by way of a three-cornered amalgamation (the "Transaction"). The Transaction introduced the leadership of Atari co-founder Nolan Bushnell and Hollywood creative director and VFX visionary Zai Ortiz to BLOC's operations, as BLOC pivots to focus on gaming-related projects.

Pursuant to the terms of the Transaction, BLOC issued 330,519,541 common shares in the capital of the Company at a deemed price of $0.15 per share in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding X2 Games Shares, for an aggregate purchase price of $49,577,931.15. Shidan Gouran, President and CEO of the Company, commented, "As a result of this transaction, we will have delivered three prosperous lines of business to our shareholders in just over a year's time. Bringing Nolan and Zai, as well as their creative works into BLOC, enables us to build a stronger footing in the ever-growing interactive gaming space. Then, with expanded operations for FORK, and continued developments with our exchange operations in the Spinout, we have a wide range of business interests in our family of companies. We expect things to go well with each of these companies before 2018 is out, with some very exciting prospects on the horizon for 2019."
