About Stock Traders Talk:

Stock Traders Talk specializes in radio interviews, and believes that when a corporate officer has the ability to demonstrate their passion, and personally cover talking points for their company it serves as the ultimate delivery platform. Press Releases have value, however, they lack the effectiveness of a webcast in helping management connect with both current and potential shareholders on a personal level. Stock Traders Talk Radio is an uncensored, comprehensive approach to disseminating vital facts about public companies trading on the OTC Markets.
