Inventergy Strengthens Balance Sheet With Recent Transactions

Company Receives Six Month Extension From NASDAQ to Regain Minimum Bid Price Compliance

CAMPBELL, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 07/01/15 -- Inventergy Global, Inc. (NASDAQ: INVT) ("Inventergy"), today announced that it has received notification from the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Department ("NASDAQ") that it has been granted an additional 180 calendar days, until December 28, 2015, to regain compliance with the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued listing. The Company's common stock will continue to trade on The NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol "INVT," with the notification having no immediate impact on the listing of the Company's common stock.

Three recent transactions helped increase the Company's stockholders' equity, a prerequisite to the NASDAQ extension. The first was a $2.15 million sale of stock to accredited investors which closed on April 7, 2015. The second transaction was a $4 million sale of two of the Company's 116 patent families to an undisclosed third party which was announced last week. The third transaction was a $100,000 additional direct investment made on June 26, 2015 by Inventergy's CEO Joe Beyers, through a stock sale.

"These transactions represent a continuing effort by our team to improve our liquidity position, providing Inventergy with the ability to reward our stockholders with fair monetization of our strong patent portfolios," said CEO Joe Beyers.
