Inventergy's SVP & General Counsel, Mr. Wayne Sobon Invited to Present at Intellectual Property Innovation & Entrepreneur Contest in Guangzhou, China

CAMPBELL, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 12/07/15 -- Inventergy Global, Inc. (NASDAQ: INVT) ("Inventergy"), today announced that its SVP & General Counsel, Mr. Wayne Sobon, will be a guest speaker on the topic of entrepreneurship and intellectual property protection in the new global environment at the "Intellectual Property Innovation & Entrepreneur Contest" (or IPIEC), sponsored by the Guangdong Province Intellectual Property Office and organized by WTOIP.com. The event will be held on December 11-12, 2015 in Guangzhou, China.

As a Past President of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) and a frequent speaker and lecturer on intellectual property issues, Mr. Sobon is a leading global expert in the IP industry. Prior to joining Inventergy, he served as Vice President and Chief IP Counsel for Rambus Inc., where he oversaw all intellectual property development worldwide, and served for more than 10 years as Chief IP Counsel at Accenture, Ltd., the global management consulting & technology services company.

IPIEC provides an opportunity to showcase new technical and entrepreneurial talent in China, and offers training and business opportunities in a conference with a range of IP experts, professors, and investors from mainland China and abroad.

"I'm pleased and honored to be asked to attend and address young, talented entrepreneurs in Guangzhou," said Mr. Sobon. "Guangdong Province embodies the incredible dynamism of China today and its rapid development of IP laws and systems. In meeting with technology developers as well as potential licensees across the Asian Pacific region, I see China increasingly well-poised in the modern IP marketplace."
