Inventergy Innovations Enters Into a Licensing Program Agreement for Solar Panel Mounting Technology

Opportunity to Offer Disruptive Technology for Solar Panel Installations and Provide Significant Cost Reductions

CUPERTINO, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 08/02/17 -- Inventergy Global, Inc. (OTC PINK: INVT) ("Inventergy"), an intellectual property licensing company, announced today that its Inventergy Innovations, LLC subsidiary has entered into an agreement with an international solar panel mounting company to license their innovative technology across the solar industry. This agreement will allow Inventergy Innovations to obtain rights to the commercialization of a unique and patented solar panel mounting technology in a high growth industry.

Joe Beyers, CEO of Inventergy, stated, "This agreement allows us to participate in the rapid growth of the solar industry and retains a share of the technology's value potential. We are always very excited when selected to represent companies who bring disruptive technologies to the market. In this particular engagement, our client's unique and patented solar panel mounting technology can enable a 50% reduction in mounting costs while enabling the installation of panels in locations that would otherwise have been impossible or cost prohibitive."

To date, Inventergy Innovations has completed 7 partnership agreements in which it has secured rights to the licensing of its partner's patents or technology or in some cases the sale of its entire business.
