One Stop Systems to Ring Nasdaq Opening Bell on Tuesday, January 15

ESCONDIDO, Calif., Dec. 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- One Stop Systems Inc. (Nasdaq: OSS), the leader in specialized high-performance computers, has been invited to ring the Nasdaq Stock Market Opening Bell on Tuesday, January 15, to commemorate the first-year anniversary of the company's IPO.

In honor of the occasion, Steve Cooper, the founder, president and CEO of OSS, will ring the opening bell at the Nasdaq Market site in Times Square, where he will be joined by other members of the OSS team.

"The ringing of the opening bell marks another significant milestone for OSS," said Cooper. "It underscores our strong growth and industry leadership, and our ability to successfully execute on our M&A strategy, such as our recent acquisition of Bressner Technology that expanded our presence in Europe. We remain on track for another record year in 2018 and into 2019, as we continue to deliver specialized, high-performance computing solutions to customers around the world."

The event will be broadcasted on major business networks and a live webcast of the Nasdaq Closing Bell can be accessed at new.livestream.com/nasdaq/live.

OSS recently reported record third quarter of 2018 results, with revenue for the quarter up 45% compared to a year ago. OSS and its new Bressner subsidiary have become increasingly dominant in the worldwide market for specialized high-performance computing, recently announcing four major OEM design-ins. Inclusive of Bressner, the company expects revenue growth of 84% to 113% in fourth quarter of 2018.

OSS management will be available throughout the day to meet individually with shareholders and investors. To request a meeting, please contact OSS investor relations at (949) 432-7557.
