Riot Blockchain Wins 500 Bitcoins in U.S. Marshals Service Auction

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Jan. 24, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Riot Blockchain, Inc. (Nasdaq: RIOT) (the "Company") today announced that it successfully placed a winning bid in the U.S. Marshals Service sealed bid auction of bitcoins. The Company placed several bids in the auction, including a winning bid for a block of 500 Bitcoins. This represents approximately 13% of the total Bitcoins in the auction.

"The U.S. Marshals Service should be commended on running a smooth and transparent auction process," commented John O'Rourke, Chairman and CEO of Riot Blockchain. "We are pleased to have successfully participated in the auction while accomplishing our objective of obtaining Bitcoins."

More information on the auction may be found here:

Investor Notice

Investing in our securities involves a high degree of risk. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider the risks, uncertainties and forward-looking statements described under "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of our most recent Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2017 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on November 13, 2017 and in Item 1A of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 filed with the SEC on March 31, 2017, as amended as of April 27, 2017 and August 15, 2017. If any of these risks were to occur, our business, financial condition or results of operations would likely suffer. In that event, the value of our securities could decline, and you could lose part or all of your investment. The risks and uncertainties we describe are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. In addition, our past financial performance may not be a reliable indicator of future performance, and historical trends should not be used to anticipate results in the future. See "Safe Harbor" below.
