SEACOR HOLDINGS INC. ANNOUNCES HABITAT FOR HUMANITY PUERTO RICO SUPPORT

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Jan. 30, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SEACOR Holdings Inc. (NYSE:CKH) ("SEACOR"), today announced it is collaborating with 84 Lumber and an anonymous donor to support Habitat for Humanity Puerto Rico's ongoing efforts to improve the living conditions on the island.

Through this initiative, two commercial trucks, donated to Habitat for Humanity Puerto Rico along with home construction materials and tools donated by 84 Lumber were loaded onto ocean transport provided by SEACOR's subsidiary Trailer Bridge, Inc. and bound for Puerto Rico.

Ocean transportation of the trucks and materials for the effort is being donated by Trailer Bridge, Inc., a shipping and logistics firm headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida. Habitat for Humanity Puerto Rico will use the trucks to continue to support the mission of helping individuals and families achieve stability, self-sufficiency and a better future through home ownership.

"SEACOR has extensive operations throughout the Caribbean, and several of our businesses have been especially active across the hurricane impacted islands," said Eric Fabrikant, SEACOR Chief Operating Officer. "We know that disaster recovery is a long journey that requires both resources and innovation. We are particularly proud to be collaborating with 84 Lumber and Habitat for Humanity Puerto Rico to make a meaningful difference in Puerto Rico."

SEACOR's operations in Puerto Rico include Trailer Bridge as well as a range of other businesses. SEACOR Island Lines provides liner and tailored freight services from South Florida to Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. CLEANCOR Soluciones Energéticas delivers innovative energy solutions. Witt O'Brien's is a disaster management consultancy that is directly supporting recovery programs throughout the region in the aftermath of Hurricanes Irma and Maria.

"We are incredibly grateful for the generosity that SEACOR, Trailer Bridge, and 84 Lumber and others have extended to help the people of Puerto Rico," said Amanda Silva, Executive Director, Habitat for Humanity Puerto Rico. "Their efforts will surely have a lasting impact in the community."
