Phoenician currently has nine issued patents, three trademarks and additional patents pending. This will provide SinglePoint valuable IP to add to its growing asset class. Phoenician has also worked with multiple influencers such as Sublime with Rome and more. Phoenician is one of the most well-known consumers grinders in the market because of its quality and lifetime guarantee. The founders will stay on board through the acquisition and continue to grow the company with SinglePoint. SinglePoint plans to help increase, the already profitable sales, through ecommerce and online advertising.

SinglePoint and Phoenician are currently working through due diligence and the completed transaction is expected to happen soon. "We are ready to close this deal. We have 100% confidence in the founders of the company. They have built a sustainable, scalable business. We believe we can help take it to the next level. They are right in our backyard here in Phoenix so working closely alongside will be easy. With their product and an injection of our funding and ecommerce knowledge I believe we can 5x revenue in the first 18 months," states Greg Lambrecht CEO. "We are incredibly exited to be working though due diligence with SinglePoint. This is a great opportunity for synergistic and collaborative efforts to come together and add tremendous value," states Colton Dukat, CEO of Phoenician.

As of April 16th 2018 SinglePoint has concluded its two year audit and plans to file a form-10 to become fully reporting. Management believes this will give the company additional access to more capital on better funding terms. This capital will be used for acquisitions such as Phoenician Engineering and others in order to grow the company revenues and increase shareholder value.
