(OTCQX: TRTC) ("Terra Tech" or the "Company"), a vertically integrated cannabis-focused agriculture company, today announced that Terra Tech subsidiary, Edible Garden, will participate in the New York Produce Show and Conference December 7th. Edible Garden will showcase its organic SUPERLEAF™ product along with organic herbs at the one-day industry trade show of over 400 companies that includes local retailers, wholesalers, foodservice distributors, urban farms and unique eateries. The attendee make-up for this event is over 40% buyers with over 5,000 produce executives from around the world visiting the 400 exhibitors for 1-on-1 meetings.

Edible Garden will have an exhibit booth at the show displaying both new and existing products including its SUPERLEAF™ product and organic herbs. Derek Peterson, Chairman and CEO of Terra Tech commented, "The New York Produce Show and Conference offers Edible Garden a prime opportunity to display and market the beneficial and nutritional properties of our organic SUPERLEAF™ lettuce to such a prospective audience. Our non-GMO verified SUPERLEAF™ lettuce continues to be a popular item for customers looking for enhanced nutritional benefits as one serving of this lettuce contains more than twice the amount of antioxidants as blueberries. The rollout of SUPERLEAF™ to existing customers in the Northeast will only expand our footprint as we aim to gain market share for Edible Garden and drive shareholder value."
