About NobleCon13

NobleCON13 annual small cap and emerging growth investor conference is an initiative of NOBLE Capital Markets and dedicated to providing a forum where private and publicly traded emerging growth companies with less than $2 billion in market capitalization can network with the investment community, fund managers and high net worth investors who focus on small cap equities. The 2017 Conference will be held over two days and will include feature presentations by CEOs and CFOs from several principal industry sectors, expert panels moderated by industry leaders, and the opportunity for investors to meet and network with management of presenting companies on a one-on-one basis. Additionally, NobleCon13 will provide ample networking opportunities through social mixers and special events.
