U.S. Trade and Development Agency to Host Business Briefing for Nuclear Energy Development in Romania

ALEXANDRIA, Va.-- Energetics Incorporated, a wholly owned subsidiary of VSE Corporation (Nasdaq:VSEC), reported today that the U.S. Trade and Development Agency (USTDA) is hosting a delegation from Romania on a visit to Washington, DC and other U.S. locations to encourage partnerships with U.S. businesses that can participate in and support Romania's civil nuclear power development plans. Energetics Incorporated is providing strategic and logistical support to the mission.

The delegation is led by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and the Business Environment and is comprised of senior leaders from EnergoNuclear, Nuclearelectrica, and the Nuclear Agency and Radioactive Waste.

As part of the visit, USTDA is sponsoring a Business Briefing on September 8, 2010 for U.S. companies to learn more about Romania's construction plans, investment opportunities, and regulatory framework for civil nuclear energy. U.S. companies with expertise in the commercial nuclear power industry are invited to participate in this one-day business briefing to:

- Meet with senior decision makers from Romania who are directly involved in the development of this growing sector.
- Network with U.S. industry and U.S. government stakeholders who are interested in the sector.
- Learn more about Romania's nuclear energy program.
- Learn about USTDA's funding programs.
- Attend one-on-one meetings with the delegates.

Register today at <http://events.energetics.com/romanianuclearenergy10/>. Timing and location of the Business Briefing are subject to change. Check the website periodically for updates. For more information on the event, please contact Peter Reed at (410) 953-6260 or preed@energetics.com.
